

Declaration and Commitment of a Candidate for Studies / Continuing student

1. I, the undersigned, hereby request to be accepted/continue as a student at Bar-Ilan University. I know that registration fees, entrance exam fees, etc. are not refunded.
2. As part of my application to be admitted to study at the university, I gave the university personal details and such, which are required for checking candidacy for the university and/or for the purpose of studies at the university and for the purpose of contacting me, and I was also given the option to provide, according to my choice, additional details, which I am under no legal obligation to transfer, for optional purposes such as scholarships, adjustments, etc. I was informed that the details I provided will be kept in the university's databases. I declare and warrant that all the details I have provided are correct and complete, and agree that the university may conduct an inspection and obtain details for the purpose of verifying the truth as well as take disciplinary measures or others, including canceling registration, stopping studies and canceling eligibility for a scholarship retroactively, in the case of providing false and/or misleading data.
3. I undertake to keep up-to-date with all the university's instructions and regulations, which are published on the website on the website www.biu.ac.il as well as in the information sheets that the university issues, and in messages sent to students, including by e-mail. I know that the instructions, regulations and notices are binding and I undertake to abide by them, throughout all my years of study at Bar-Ilan University.
4. I know that the format of the studies, including exams, will be determined by the university authorities accordingly to the academic requirements, to the provisions of the law, to the circumstances related to the Corona crisis and constraints arising from this and that the studies and exams may take place in physical presence, online, in combination between the two, or in any other suitable way, and often using means of appropriate technologies, as determined by the university.
5. I undertake to pay the tuition fees, mandatory student payments and related payments, and any amount that will be paid to me in accordance with the university's instructions, on time. I agree that lags in the payment(s) will incur linkage differences and arrears fees at a rate that will be published on the website of the university, and will also allow the university to take measures such as blocking services, not issuing approvals for studies and interruption of studies, in accordance with its instructions in this regard. Receiving a degree, recognition or academic approval will not detract from my obligation to pay the balance of my debts to the university. I know that welfare fees are optional payments and that if I do not notify, by the appointed time, of my choice not to pay welfare fees, I will be charged for their payment as an inseparable part of the tuition fee.
6. I know that a suspension of studies will come into effect only if and when the student's notification about it arrives in writing through the In-Bar personal information system for students under 'administrative requests', and I undertake to be in accordance with this.
7. Clicking "OK" on an electronic form on the university's website will obligate me, as if I were to confirmed this in writing.
